Two People Arrested For Sex Trafficking A Minor

On May 23, 2014 Beaverton Police Detectives started a sex trafficking investigation. Detectives located 23 year old Erica Dana Lummus when she arrived at a local motel to engage in prostitution. Shortly after Detectives contacted Lummus, they contacted a 17 year old girl at the motel who was connected with Lummus. Evidence and statements collected at the scene led Detectives to believe Lummus and 24 year old Italia Angelique Porter had been sex trafficking the 17 year old girl.

The 17 year old girl was found to have Protective Custody warrant out of Bakersfield, CA and had been missing since January of 2014

Lummus and Porter were indicted by a federal grand jury for Sex Trafficking of a Minor, Transportation of a Minor for Prostitution and violation of the Mann Act, and arrest warrants were issued. On June 1st, 2014 Lummus, a resident of Molalla, Oregon, was arrested on her arrest warrant in Portland, Oregon. On June 4th, 2014 Porter, a resident of Vancouver, Washington, was arrested on her arrest warrant in Portland, Oregon. Both Lummus and Porter were transported to Multnomah County Jail for booking.
